WEST WATERFORD

Mr. and Mrs. William Conley from St. Johnsbury visited Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Chandler on New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulford visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl Blodgett on New Year's.

Mrs. Martha J. Blodgett received the sad news Jan. 3, that her brother-in-law, Joseph B. Soper, at South Pasadena, Cal., had passed away Jan. 2 at his place of business, also her brother at Lunenburg had cut an artery in his wrist.

VERMONT NEWS

Patrick W. Carroll of Bellows Falls, 30 years old, and unmarried, died in the hospital there Jan. 1 from a fractured skull received while at work as brakeman on the Rutland railroad switching engine. He was connecting air pipes and his head was caught between two buffers. His mother, one sister and six brothers survive him.

A collision near Brattleboro between a gravel train and a train whose engine had been derailed resulted in the death of one man and serious injuries to four. The switch was set to show an open track when the engine on the first train was off the track. When the collision came the tender of the rear train was doubled up and thrown against the boiler in such a way that the fireman, Mr. Hanger, was pinched between the two and died before aid reached him. The ambulance which was sent for them was run into and delayed for four hours and another team sent to the scene ran away.

The estate of John A. Leary has brought suit against the city of Burlington to recover $25,000 for his death the 12th of last February by electricity and through alleged negligence of the city.

The new $44,000 school house at Winoski is completed and now in use. It is built of red brick with trimmings of Longmeadow brown sandstone. All the class rooms are arranged on an axis in such a way that the light is always at the pupils' left and the teacher's desk at the long axis of the room. The basement contains two large rooms which may be used for industrial work. Heating and ventilating are by indirect methods and assembly hall and auditorium are lighted by the indirect system. Three separate exits and fire gongs in each corridor afford fire protection.

Application has been made to the secretary of state by C. A. Powell, H. C. Comings, and A. J. Livingston of Richford for a charter incorporating the Powell and Comings company with a capital stock of $50,000. Two children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sparks of Hancock, 9 and 11 years old, had an exciting experience with a Canadian lynx which followed them half a mile approaching within a few feet but apparently not daring to attack them. The first they noticed was a noise like a cat squall, then the lynx came in to sit following their trail. Twice it came within 30 feet but retreated when the girl threw sticks at it. The children were carrying a piece of fresh killed pork and it is thought the smell of fresh blood attracted the animal.

AMUSEMENTS

The Klark-Urban Company to Give A Three Nights' Engagement

The Klark-Urban Company which is considered one of the strongest and most perfect of all repertory organizations will open its three night and Saturday matinee engagement at the Colonial theatre Thursday evening of this week in the great American play, "The Man of the Hour." The production will be given as near complete as the most advanced stage management can devise. The company itself is made up of clever people headed by Miss Maisie Cecil and Harden Klark, who are considered the most talented as well as the most magnetic leading people playing at popular prices. The following high class vaudeville acts will be introduced at each and every performance. The great "Irving" society magician; Billy Webb, comedian and dancer; Al Canton, comedy juggler and hoop roller, and Klark, Urban and Schreiber, musical artists. Ladies tickets, 15 cents Thursday evening, limited to 200 if bought at the advance sale before 6 p. m., Thursday. Seats now on sale.

Cut The High Cost of Living

W. H. Chapman, Winnebago, Neb., tells how he did it. "My two children had a very bad cough and the doctor's medicine did them no good. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and before it was all used the children were free and cured of their cough. I saved a doctor's bill for one 25c bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound." A mean stuffy cold, with hoarse wheezy breathing is just the kind that runs into bronchitis or pneumonia. Don't trifle with such serious conditions but take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound promptly. Contains no opiates. C. C. BINGHAM, Adv.

NEWBURY

One of the largest collections of Vermont publications to change hands in many years, at least, if ever before, has just passed into the hands of a Manchester man through the sale by United States Marshal Horace W. Bailey of this town of a large number of the duplicates of his famous collection of books and pamphlets having to do with the Green Mountain State. This collection represents the work of 25 years in purchase and exchange and men whose hobby is rare books consider it the finest lot of Vermont publications extant. The set which is going to Manchester brings $300 and it includes 134 pamphlets besides a number of rare books of larger size. Included in the lot are several town histories, legislative and political notes, copies of famous addresses, descriptions of famous celebrations and publications of the natural history of the state. Most of these publications are out of print and have been picked up through years of watching bookstores and sales lists. Marshal Bailey has in his private collection about 125 bound volumes of pamphlets of various sizes besides hundreds of books.

In response to a call from Mrs. Hattie E. Shipman of Hardwick, department president of Woman's Relief Corps, the sum of $111 was raised to be presented to the veterans of the Vermont soldiers' home at Bennington for the purchase of a graphophone a Christmas gift from the 63 corps of the state.

Escaped After Fifteen Years

W. P. Broyles made a successful escape after 15 years of suffering from kidney and bladder troubles. Foley Kidney Pills released him and will do just the same for others. He says: "They cured a most severe backache with painful bladder irregularities and they do all you claim for them." Take the "direct road" to health and strength by using Foley Kidney Pills for backache, rheumatism, weak, sore kidneys and bladder irregularities. They are the best medicine you can buy for kidney and bladder ailments. C. C. BINGHAM, Adv.
